I really like Roblox because I get to make friends with other users on the Internet that are my age and play games with me. Another thing I like about it is that you can play different games and see which ones you like, so it's very fun to me. I also think that the game has helped me develop a lot of social skills because you can talk to your friends using voice chat or text chat. You can tell them how you're feeling, what's wrong, etc. It's a game where there are a lot of different people from all around the world and they all have their own story. Another reason why I love the game is that you can really make new friends and you can play with them offline.

ROBLOX is a great game, and has lots of potential, but it's not being used as a serious game developer wants it to be. You can't break out of the virtual world without spending money on the Robux currency. It's like a video game and to continue playing you need Robux, but if there is no value in the game then they don't want you to play at all.

On December 20th, 2021, ROBLOX announced that they would be adding system tokens to enable their users to "pre-order" an item before it is put on sale. This way users can give feedback and ROBLOX could make changes if necessary.[26]. In late 2021 when the game was seemingly more popular than ever, numerous reports were made about a player called "unikraken," as well as his group of friends he allowed in his places. This user was not banned from the site for a long time, which attracted hordes of people to his server. The servers would become infested with bots, cheats, hackers and other fraudulent activities that it slowed the game for everyone. These servers have since been taken down and ROBLOX has removed as much of these malicious players' information as they could.[27]

Looking back at my own experience with Minecraft, it's so easy to see why people were so obsessed with it. The game was all about survival. It was about building a new life out of nothing. Things that would make you successful weren't free; they required you to work hard for them. But they were worth the wait, because it would mean you'd gather more items over time, and then you could make your house bigger or better fortified. The game was about connecting with your friends, and making sure that they were safe and able to live their own lives in the Minecraft world as well.

How about having a system where you can trade other players items and for their items you can trade them... and also it would be better if someone was able to get ban for inappropriate activity but at least it would give them an option to choose from and no one should be allowed to use excessive exp which is currently going very bad in the game... How about aswell have a better chat message system as well as on roblox the roleplay activity is pretty dead....
